A Message from Father Aaron

The Beauty of Marriage and Family

Dear brothers and sisters,

This Sunday, World Marriage Day, calls attention to the significant influence that marriage has on the Church, the society and the world. The witness of a strong Catholic marriage brings about a ripple effect of blessings that reaches far and wide for many years to come. Today we pray for and promote strong, faith-filled and happy marriages between one man and one woman in the Catholic Church that bears witness to God's loving plan.

Today there are significant challenges posed to traditional Christian marriage and family. This should be no surprise to followers of Christ as from the very beginning Satan has attacked marriage. From the time of Adam and Eve, to the beheading of John the Baptist for calling Herod to conversion for marrying his brother's wife, to our time today in which Christians are made into "discriminators" or authors of "hate speech" for believing in faith and good conscience that the God of creation has ordained marriage to be between one man and one woman. "God created mankind in his image; in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them." (Gen. 1: 27)

At times there may be confusion over what the Church today really teaches about marriage and the issue of gender in our culture. What the Church teaches about same-sex attraction and marriage is crucial for each follower of Christ to know, understand and be able to articulate. Is the Church against those with same-sex attraction? The short answer is, no, of course not. The Church loves and cares for all of God's children and She also continues to call all to the holiness of life and conversion that God desires.

A distinction here must be made between a person who has a tendency to be attracted to the same sex and one who is actively living out a same-sex relationship. Therefore, an individual who may be burdened with the tendency to same-sex attraction is called to chastity and purity of life and not to act on impulses which reject God's plan for sexuality which leads them into grave sin. In Pope Francis' encyclical Amoris Laetitia, it clearly states, "There are absolutely no grounds for considering homosexual unions to be in any way similar or even remotely analogous to God's plan for marriage and family." At the same time the Church lovingly extends a hand to those in need, as Francis states, "Those who struggle with homosexual tendencies, "can receive the assistance they need to understand and fully carry out God's will in their lives."

As Christians we do not judge the heart but we must judge the action. We must hate the sin, not the sinner. And we believe that true love is found in proclaiming and calling each other into God's truth of creation. In these trying times for marriage and family may we continue to pray that our Creator's beautiful plan is known and lived out in its fullness.

God bless you,
Father Aaron
