Gospel Meditation

Life can easily spin us out of control. While there are so many wonderful opportunities before us, we can also get easily distracted and exhausted. There is always something to do, respond to, or check. The clutter of our lives can take us off course, and the best remedy for getting back on track is the experience of the desert. Here we can face our demons square on, resist them, and get back on course. We desperately need the season of Lent. This simple time of year forces us into greater awareness and grounds us in what is good and true.

What weighs you down and keeps you trapped? Maybe you are trying to do too much and please too many people. It could be that your fragile self-image is always pushing you to prove yourself and find success. Anxiety and worry, ultimately due to a lack of faith, can quickly tempt you with despair. It could be that you are listening to too many voices and allowing all of the negativity that is present erode the genuine goodness in your heart and in all of God's creation. Or maybe you struggle too much with fear. Perhaps so much so that you are far too preoccupied with your own agenda and goals and left with little psychological or spiritual room to consider and respond to the plight of your neighbor. Do anger, bitterness, stubbornness, and hatred have homes in your heart? How about greed, gluttony, pride, apathy, or lust?

For many, their passions and what can be found on the internet are their downfall, and they are robbed of their inner life and freedom. What is it, specifically, that tempts you away from a childlike trust in God? Define this and use the next few weeks to allow God to chart you a course away from them. Silence, being alone, grace, honesty, struggle, tears, and dryness are all found in the desert. You will also find God and your true self in this holy place. Ready to go?

Traveling Chalice and Madonna

This week we give honor to Saint Katherine Drexel whose feast day is March 3. She spent a life-long effort with great faith, zeal and effort helping the Native & and Africa Americans in the United States. Saint Katherine Drexel had inherited $12,000 and founded the Order of The Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament who had grown to 500 members in 51 Convents. Saint Katherine Drexel was beatified in 1988 when she was credited for restoring a boys hearing and in the year of 2000 was given credit for a miracle for the cure of deafness. Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Katherine Drexel in October of 2000 for becoming the 2nd US born saint to be canonized. As we begin Lent this year maybe the Holy Spirit will plant and inspire us to enter into thoughts and thanksgiving for the needy of the world and how we can be instrumental in helping someone near or far to feel the hands of Jesus.

Thank you to Art and Margie Kuechle for hosting the Traveling Chalice and Madonna! Your prayers are precious enabling someone in the world to hear the voice of God.....COME FOLLOW ME!
